

KIDS.RI.GOV

Kids.RI.Gov connects Rhode Island families to trusted resources—from pregnancy through age 18—all in one place.

Finding help for your child shouldn't be complicated.

Kids.RI.Gov makes it easier by bringing together reliable programs, services, and supports for families across Rhode Island.

Scan to explore Kids.RI.Gov

Prenatal to Pre-K

Find guidance and local programs to support you through pregnancy, early childhood, and the transition to kindergarten.

Behavioral Health

Explore tools and services that support children's emotional well-being, mental health, and family connections.

NEW! Children with Special Health Care Needs

Discover a comprehensive directory of services, supports, and care coordination for children with special needs.

- Trusted information from Rhode Island agencies
- Designed for families and caregivers
- Find support faster, all in one place

PRENATAL TO PRE-K

BEHAVIORAL HEALTH

CHILDREN WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

kids.ri.gov

RIDOH.SpecialNeedsYouth@health.ri.gov

SPECIALNEEDS.RI.GOV

CHILDREN WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

NEW! Support for Children with Special Health Care Needs

A simpler way to find services, supports, and answers for your child.

If your child has special health care needs or a disability, finding the right services can feel complicated.

The Children with Special Health Care Needs section of Kids.RI.Gov was built to help.

Scan to Explore

Explore a comprehensive, easy-to-use directory that connects you to:

- Care coordination and navigation support
- Medical and behavioral health services
- Early intervention and educational resources
- Family support programs
- Community services across Rhode Island

Who It's For

- Parents
- Caregivers
- Providers
- Educators
- Care coordinators

Designed with families and partners, this new resource helps reduce confusion and make it easier to find the support your child needs—when you need it.

specialneeds.ri.gov

RIDOH.SpecialNeedsYouth@health.ri.gov