TIPS & TRICKS

HOW CAN YOU FIND MORE?

Start with your interests and hobbies
The best way to keep busy and meet people is to join clubs, groups, and attend events that match your interests and hobbies. This guide has lots of ideas, but there is so much more to explore! If you have friends with similar hobbies, ask them where they like to go and what they do!

Look at community bulletin boards
Many places in your neighborhood have bulletin boards where people put up flyers about what's happening. You can find out about events and activities that match your interests without having to search too hard. Maybe there's a local art class you'd enjoy or a fun concert in the park!

Be brave and try something new!
Trying new things keeps life exciting and helps you grow as a person. You grow when you learn new skills, meet new people, and discover more of the world around you. You might like the routine you have, and that's okay, but sometimes our routines like to be added to and change!

Research and advocate for accessible options
CLICK HERE to see our page about some places that have great programs to make their events and locations friendly and safe for everyone.

You can also read about some ways to research and prepare yourself ahead of time.

Learn about your transportation options
How will you get where you're going? Learn about the many options for transportation in Rhode Island with this mini-guide by CLICKING HERE!

Use maps, apps, and websites!
Map apps can give you directions and transportation options, but did you know it can also help you discover new restaurants, cafes, and places to shop in your community? CLICK HERE to learn about a map tool you can use to learn about what's in your community!

Learn more about accessible options on the next page...

SERVE YOUR COMMUNITY & VOLUNTEER!

Volunteering is when you donate your time (for free) to help your community and its organizations, helping them with what they need.

WHO

can volunteer?

Anyone can volunteer! Some places might ask that their volunteers be 18+, but many times children can be involved in volunteering too.

WHAT

can I do as a volunteer?

You can do almost anything! It depends on what the organization or opportunity you find needs, and how it fits in with your skills and interests!

WHEN

can I volunteer?

You can usually find places to volunteer that fit your own schedule. There are opportunities where you can volunteer during the hours most people work, on the weekends, and at night.

WHERE

can I volunteer?

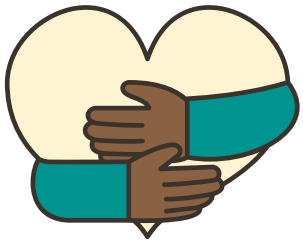

There are many organizations, community groups, and other non profits looking for volunteers. Sometimes you can even volunteer from home! The next page shares links to look for them!

WHY should I volunteer?

Volunteering is a great way to give back to your community, help someone in need, learn new things, meet new people, and try out different types of work experiences. It can help you feel good about yourself, too!

TIPS: Try a beginners class or a chair yoga class if you are just starting out!

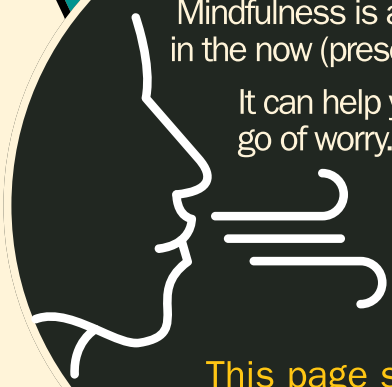

Many studios offer trial memberships at a lower cost to see if you like it.

What is it?

Mindfulness is about staying in the now (present moment).

It can help you relax and let go of worry.

There are many ways to learn and practice it.

This page shares some ideas:

SPECIAL THANKS TO:

We'd like to take time to thank Susan Hayward who recently retired from The Department of Behavioral Healthcare, Developmental Disabilities, & Hospitals (BHDDH).

Susan is and was a champion and supporter of this guide, and we wish her a retirement where she explores lots of new places, activities, and events, as well as enjoying some time to relax!

We also wish to thank BHDDH for its continued partnership with RIPIN and all they have done to support and share our work.
